The story begins with Clare and Raki traveling to a new town. The town is being terrorized by a Yoma, and the Claymore warriors are called in to defeat it. Clare and her comrades are able to defeat the Yoma, but not without suffering some losses. Clare is particularly affected by the death of one of her comrades, and she begins to question her own destiny.

Clare's doubts are only compounded when she learns that she is a "Child Weapon." Child Weapons are Claymore warriors who are created from the flesh of Yoma. They are more powerful than regular Claymores, but they also have a shorter lifespan. Clare is horrified to learn that she is a Child Weapon, and she begins to wonder if she is destined to die a tragic death.

Clare's doubts and fears come to a head when she is forced to fight her former mentor, Teresa. Teresa is a powerful Claymore warrior who is also a Child Weapon. Clare is initially hesitant to fight Teresa, but she eventually realizes that she must do so in Free Download to protect her friends. The battle between Clare and Teresa is one of the most emotional and intense moments in the series.
