When Odessa is hired to find a missing person, she quickly realizes that the case is far more complex and sinister than it seems. The deeper she digs, the more she uncovers a web of secrets, lies, and murder that reaches the highest echelons of power.

As Odessa closes in on the truth, she becomes a target herself. Threats turn into violence, and she must use all of her skills and resources to stay alive. But even as she faces danger at every turn, Odessa refuses to give up. She is determined to find the missing person and expose the truth, no matter the cost.

Fatal Glow is a fast-paced and suspenseful mystery novel that will keep you on the edge of your seat from start to finish. Odessa Jones is a complex and relatable character, and her determination to find the truth is both admirable and inspiring.

If you're looking for a mystery novel that will keep you guessing until the very end, then Fatal Glow is the perfect book for you. With its intricate plot, well-developed characters, and heart-stopping suspense, Fatal Glow is a must-read for fans of mystery and suspense.
