Lakota Woman is a powerful and inspiring story of a Native American woman's journey of courage, resilience, and survival. Mary Crow Dog was born on the Rosebud Indian Reservation in South Dakota in 1956. Her family was poor and she grew up in a violent and abusive home. Despite these challenges, Mary found solace in her Lakota culture and traditions. She became a strong advocate for her people and their rights.

Lakota Woman is a testament to the power of the human spirit and the importance of family, community, and tradition. Mary Crow Dog's story is a reminder that even in the darkest of times, there is always hope.
