My Hero Academia Vigilantes is a spin-off manga series from the popular anime and manga series My Hero Academia. The series follows a group of vigilantes who operate outside the law to protect the city from villains. While the main My Hero Academia series focuses on the students of U.A. High School, Vigilantes tells the story of a group of adults who have taken it upon themselves to fight for justice.

Characters

The main characters of My Hero Academia Vigilantes are:

- Koichi Haimawari: A timid and insecure young man who gains the ability to control water after a near-death experience. He takes on the vigilante identity of The Crawler.
- Pop Step: A cheerful and outgoing young woman who can create bubbles of various shapes and sizes. She uses her bubbles to fight villains and help people in need.

- Knuckleduster: A grizzled and experienced vigilante who has been fighting villains for years. He is a skilled hand-to-hand combatant and uses a variety of weapons to take down his enemies.

Story

My Hero Academia Vigilantes Vol. 1 introduces readers to the world of the vigilantes and their mission to protect the city. The volume begins with Koichi Haimawari gaining his powers and taking on the identity of The Crawler. He quickly teams up with Pop Step and Knuckleduster, and together they form a formidable team of vigilantes.

The volume also introduces readers to the villain Captain Celebrity, a narcissistic and powerful villain who is obsessed with fame. Captain Celebrity is a major threat to the city, and the vigilantes must find a way to stop him before he causes any more damage.

Review

My Hero Academia Vigilantes Vol. 1 is a great to the world of the vigilantes and their mission to protect the city. The volume has a strong cast of characters, an exciting storyline, and beautiful artwork. Fans of the My Hero Academia series will definitely want to check out this spin-off.
