Our book is packed with 365+ fun and easy ideas to keep your little ones entertained and learning without screen time. From sensory play to art projects to outdoor activities, we've got you covered.

Here are just a few of the activities you'll find in our book:

- Sensory play: Playdough, slime, sand, and water play are all great ways to help your child explore their senses and develop their fine motor skills.

- Art projects: Finger painting, drawing, and coloring are all great ways to encourage your child's creativity and imagination.
- Outdoor activities: Get your child outside for some fresh air and exercise. Go for a walk, play in the park, or explore your backyard.
- Imaginative play: Pretend play is a great way for your child to develop their social skills and learn to use their imagination.
- Educational activities: Learning can be fun! Try some of our educational activities, such as counting games, letter recognition, and shape sorting.

Our book is perfect for:

- Parents who want to reduce their child's screen time
- Teachers and caregivers who are looking for screen-free activities for their students or children
- Anyone who wants to spend more quality time with their child
