Written by Prince's former backup singer and close friend, Mayte Garcia, The Most Beautiful chronicles their tumultuous relationship, from their first meeting to the birth of their son and the tragic loss of their daughter. Garcia paints a vivid portrait of Prince as a complex and brilliant artist, but also as a flawed and enigmatic man.

Through personal anecdotes and never-before-seen photographs, Garcia shares her unique perspective on Prince's creative process, his struggles with fame, and his deep love for his music. She reveals the inspiration behind his most iconic songs, including "Purple Rain" and "1999," and sheds light on the enigmatic figure behind the purple mystique.

The Most Beautiful is a must-read for fans of Prince and music lovers alike. It is a deeply personal and poignant account of one of the most influential artists of our time. Garcia's writing is honest, raw, and ultimately inspiring, offering a rare glimpse into the life of a legend.
